Notwithstanding any contrary provision contained herein, if, in the exercise of any rights hereunder, Tenant, or its agents shall cause damage to the Landlord's property or any equipment located on Landlord's property, Tenant shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of a statement from Landlord evidencing the amount of such damage, pay Landlord reasonable costs to repair such damage.

If the Term expires or is terminated on a day which is not the last day of the calendar month, then the Rent for the final partial calendar month that the Rent is due will be prorated based on the actual number of days within such calendar month prior to the end of the Term.

3.2 Utilities. The Tenant shall be provided with connections to hydro, natural gas, and sewage. The Tenant shall, at its sole cost and expense, pay for electricity, water, gas, and other utilities that may be necessary for Tenant's operations. Tenant shall be billed for the use of such services and shall promptly pay the same when due. In the event utilities are not paid, they shall be determined to be rent and be enforceable on the same basis as unpaid rent. With respect to sewage, in the event that the City of Toronto increases the sewage charge on the tax bill, the Landlord will ascertain what additional overage on sewage charge there might be, and the overage shall be billed to the tenant in the same manner as utilities.

3.3 Taxes. In addition to Rent, Tenant shall pay additional taxes or assessments, if any, which may be levied or charged to Landlord as a result of Tenant's use or occupancy of the Land, including but not limited to, any gross revenue tax, excise tax or value added tax levied by the federal government or any other governmental body with respect to receipt of Rent, and upon this transaction or any other document to which Tenant is a party creating personal property taxes on Tenant's improvements and personal property and any other taxes payable by Tenant as due.

- (c) Environmental liability insurance with a combined single occurrence limit of not less than $2,000,000.
- (d) Landlord to be named as an Additional Insured on tenant’s policies.
- (e) Landlord and Tenant each waive any and all rights to recover against the other or against the officers, directors, shareholders, partners, employees, agents, customers, invitees or business visitors of such other party, for any loss or damage to such waving party arising from any cause covered by any property insurance required to be carried by such party pursuant to this Article or any other property insurance actually carried by such party pursuant to this Article or any other property insurance actually carried by such party to the extent of the limits of such policy. Landlord and Tenant, from time to time, will cause their respective insurers to issue appropriate waiver of subrogation rights endorsements to all property insurance policies carried in connection with the Land or the contents of the Land. The Tenant shall deliver a true copy of the insurance policy naming the Landlord as loss payee prior to taking possession of the leased premises. In the event there is a lapse of insurance, or a cancellation of insurance, the Landlord may be permitted on the Tenants behalf to place such insurance and the cost thereof shall be treated as arrears of rent.

5.1 Tenant’s Indemnity. The Tenant acknowledges that those environmental issues are not in any respect detrimental to its operation or harmful to any officers, directors, shareholders, employees or occupiers and invitees to the tenant's premises. At the termination of the lease, the tenant shall leave the premises in a similar or better condition relating to environmental issues and if the landlord determines that there has been an environmental accident, spillage, or other contamination which in the landlord's reasonable expectation requires an environmental report, the Landlord at its sole discretion may requisition such environmental investigation, the cost of which shall be borne by the Tenant. If the report indicates that the Tenant has contaminated the site to a degree necessitating rectification, the cost of the report and the rectification may be taken by Landlord from any pre-paid rent or security deposit which it holds.

6.2 Tenant's Obligations. During the Term, Tenant will not use, generate, place, store, release or otherwise dispose of Hazardous Materials on the Land, except in accordance with all Environmental Laws. Landlord will indemnify Tenant from and against any losses, costs, fines, legal fees or expenses, damages, or liabilities arising out of any environmental contaminations of, or the presence of Hazardous Materials on, the Land as of the commencement of this Lease (and after commencement of this Lease to the extent caused by Landlord or Landlord's agents, employees, independent contractors, invitees or licensees).

7.3 Compliance with Laws. For the purposes of this Section 7.3, “Applicable Laws” means all laws, statutes, ordinances and governmental rules, regulations, or requirements now in force or in force after the Commencement Date. At its sole cost and expense, Tenant will promptly comply with Applicable Laws insofar as they relate to (a) Tenant’s use, occupancy or alteration of the Land, (b) the condition of the Land resulting from Tenant’s use, occupancy, or alteration of the Land; or (c) alterations to the Land required as a result of Tenant’s status under Applicable Laws.

ARTICLE 8 – DEFAULT

8.1 Events of Default. The following events are referred to collectively as “Events of Default” or individually as an “Event of Default”:

- (a) Tenant defaults in the due and punctual payment of Rent or Additional Rent, and such default continues for five (5) days after written notice from Landlord.
- (b) The Tenant has breached its covenants or failed to perform any of its obligations under this Lease and such default continues seven (7) days after receipt of written notice from the

(c) The Tenant has:

8.2 When an Act of Default on the part of the Tenant has occurred and, if Tenant does not cure such default (i) within ten (10) days after written notice has been given to Tenant, or (ii) within thirty (30) days after written notice has been given to Tenant (or such longer period as may be necessary to cure such default so long as Tenant initiates such cure within such thirty (30) day period and diligently pursues the cure to completion), then, without prejudice to all other remedies available to the Landlord hereunder or at law:

- (i) all arrears of Rent, the current month's Rent and the next two (2) months' Rent shall immediately become due and payable without further notice or demand; and
- (ii) the Landlord shall have the right to immediately distrain for all Rent outstanding and due and owing; and

8.3 If, because an Act of Default has occurred, the Landlord exercises its right to terminate this Lease prior to the end of the Term, the Tenant shall nevertheless be liable for payment of Rent and all other amounts payable by the Tenant in accordance with the provisions of this Lease until the Landlord has re-let the Land or otherwise dealt with the Land in such manner that the cessation of payments by the Tenant will not result in loss to the Landlord, and the Tenant agrees to be liable to the Landlord, until the end of the Term of this Lease for payment of any difference between the amount of Rent hereby agreed to be paid for the Term hereby granted and the Rent any new Tenant pays to the Landlord.

If the Landlord so elects, it may elect to claim damages equivalent to the full value of the lease pursuant to the fourth option in the case of Highway Properties Limited v. Kelly Douglas and Co. Ltd., 1971, SCR

8.4 If, when an Act of Default has occurred, the Landlord shall have the right to take any and all necessary steps to rectify any or all Acts of Default of the Tenant and to charge the costs of such rectification to the Tenant and to recover the costs as Rent.

8.5 No forbearance or waiver by the Landlord of or with respect to any Act of Default shall constitute or be deemed to be a consent, condonation, or waiver of that or any other similar or subsequent Act of Default, unless expressly waived in writing and signed by the Landlord.

9.3 The Rent for any overholding period shall be double the Rent for the last month of the Term. If the Tenant remains in possession of the Land after termination of this Lease and if the Landlord then accepts rent for the Land from the Tenant, it is agreed that such overholding by the Tenant and acceptance of Rent by the Landlord shall create a monthly tenancy only but the tenancy shall remain subject to all the terms and conditions of this Lease except those regarding the Term.
